

Design changes for in-place quicksort communication has to be different

* partition must report back what's where?

* quicksort itself must be told what part of list to sort.

* who will move the pivot into place?